

Directors & Officers Insurance

When you are juggling the demands of your business:

Compliance

 Health & Safety

Employment

Accounting

Who's protecting you?

- Premiums start at £150 (excluding tax)*
- Up to £5 million cover limit available*
- Available to UK companies with an annual turnover of up to £25 million*

Example scenarios where Directors and Officers cover could help:

Compliance

It has been alleged that the directors acted irresponsibly in regards to the management of the company's financial statements.

Health & Safety

A customer was seriously injured on our property and has suggested the injury was avoidable as the business had cut corners. The director responsible for Health and Safety is now facing a criminal investigation.

Employment

A director was named personally in an unfair dismissal claim from a former employee and is now facing legal costs of over £14,000.

Accounting

After a business entered administration, it was alleged that the directors used company monies inappropriately. One of the directors was personally being sued for £300,000.
